

Program
THE COGNITIVE TURN IN HISTORY
4 and 5 November
University of Groningen

Thursday 4 November
Van der Leeuwzaal (Academic Building)

- 13h45 Welcome
- 14h15 Opening by Catrien Santing
- 14h30-15h30 Julie Dresvina (University of Oxford and Greene's Institute)
Cognitive and Affective Transformation of Information in Medieval Self-Narratives
- Chair: Catrien Santing
- 15h30-16h00 Break
- 16h00-17h00 Theo Lap (University of Groningen)
The Cognitive Communication of Consolation: Analyzing Continuing Bonds in 12th-Century Letter Collections
- Chair: Babette Hellemans

Friday 5 November
Room A8 (Academic Building)

- 9h00-9h15 Welcome
- 9h15-10h15 Victoria Blud (University of York)
Turning Into What? Medieval Studies, Cognitive Studies and Transformation
- Chair: Catrien Santing
- 10h15-10h30 Short Break
- 10h30-11h30 Frank Brandsma (Utrecht University)
Theory of Mind, Lancelot's Lunacy and Rehab
- Chair: Babette Hellemans
- 11h30-12h30 Micol Long (University of Padua)
Hidden invitations. On the Use of the Notion of Affordance to Study medieval Gift-Giving
- Chair: Babette Hellemans
- 12h45-14h00 Lunch Break
- 14h00-15h00 James Kennaway (University of Groningen)

Program
THE COGNITIVE TURN IN HISTORY
4 and 5 November
University of Groningen

Music and the Brain: Neuroscience, History and Critical Medical Humanities

Chair: Catrien Santing

15h00-15h15	Short Break
15h15-15h30	Presentation by Editorial Board Groniek
15h30-16h00	Conclusions and Round Table Babette Hellemans and Catrien Santing

For more information, please contact one of the organizers:

Catrien Santing	c.g.santing@rug.nl
Babette Hellemans	b.s.hellemans@rug.nl